MAKING A DIFFERENCE

150 and presto, a child who wanted to go outside everyday!

Nathalie says her son is excited even when he finds modern trash. They were both eager to get out hunting again after the long Ontario winter. She says that detecting with her son is making a big difference in both of their lives and is also a very great learning experience.

Happy hunting to you both!

Some of the coins and jewelry found by Stephan and his mother.

Finder: Stephan & Nathalie J.,
Ontario, Canada

Using: ACE 150

Find: "My son and I have been treasure hunting for three years now and we are really hooked," says Nathalie. "Stephan is 19 and has Autism. He has always been a very happy child and finding something he enjoyed was a big problem. I bought him an ACE

AT GOLD WATER HUNTER CONTINUES HIS SUCCESS

Beau Ouimette has been posting a steady string of Civil War finds this summer. He is seen above with a freshly recovered Spencer carbine rifle. Seen below are a bent Enfield musket barrel, a few dozen bullets, and a Schenke artillery shell from another hunt. See more on pages 10-11.

TREASURES SAVED FROM THE ASHES

Dana H. of Carmel, CA came to the aid of some friends whose home burned to the ground in a December 2013 forest fire. The couple asked him to bring his metal detector to help search the ashes and rubble for their heirloom silverware and an old coin collection.

Dana first put his AT Pro in Custom Pro Mode with iron discrim at 40 and all but the last five notches taken out. "I located the silverware piece by piece and then located an old tin containing some old silver dollars and various other coins," he said. He then switched to the Coins Mode with iron disc on 40 to recover several pieces of jewelry and a whiskey flask.

"The fire may have taken their home and possessions," he said, "but the AT Pro ensured the family heirlooms would continue on their journey to future generations."

Dana H. (seen at far left) used his AT Pro to recover a family's lost treasures after a home fire. Among his finds was this tin of old coins, including silver dollars.

Finder: Matt D., Manassas Park, VA
Using: AT Pro
Find: Soon after purchasing a house in Manassas Park, Matt decided to try detecting in his own yard. Just seven steps into his back yard, he picked up “a really nice high sound not very loud, so I knew it was a little deep.” He dug this Civil War breastplate 16” deep.

EuroACE Finds Shared with Garrett Office

Geoff M. from Austria was in Texas back in November 2013 and he stopped by the Garrett offices. He has since moved up to using an AT Pro detector, but Geoff shared some of his favorite coin finds that he made during 2013 with his EuroACE detector.

(Above) Hammered silver coins of various dates that Geoff found while hunting in lower Austria about 40 miles southeast of Vienna.

(Above) Some of Geoff’s favorite Roman coin finds. These bronze and silver coins date from the 1st to 3rd centuries AD.

(Below) This hammered silver coin is in immaculate condition. It was in use during the rule of King Stefan of Hungary, who was born in the year 986 and died in 1038 east of Vienna.

Jewelry and Ring Finds

Finder: David G., Enfield, CT

Using: ACE 250

Find: This is the smile of a happy child that greeted David after he did a good deed with his detector. He spotted the child crying with her mother as he got out of his car in the CVS parking lot. She had lost her pendant necklace in the snow.

David went home to get his ACE 250 and then spent about an hour searching through the snow before he was able to detect the pendant. When he pulled up to the family's home the next day to drop it off, he recalled, "All I saw was this little girl with a huge smile on her face. Come to find out, her father is deployed overseas and bought it for her for her birthday so it was a very special necklace to her."

Finder: Scott R., Hornbeak, TN

Using: AT Pro

Find: Scott believes the most cherished finds are "the ones that bring happiness to friends and family." He created considerable happiness for his sister-in-law when he searched for and found a ring that had been hand-made by her father. It was a half-finished one, made from a silver quarter. "When I saw the tears immediately well up in her eyes, I knew that this was the ultimate treasure we seek as detectorists," he said.

Finder: Sem V., Mill, Netherlands

Using: ACE 150

Find: Diamond buckle, ca. 1700s

Finder: Robin W., Lancaster, KY

Using: ACE 250

Find: Robin helped return this ring that had been lost 30 years before.

Finder: Scott and Martha H., Costa Mesa, CA

Using: ACE 250

Find: Martha and her husband Scott were hunting in an old park when she began digging pieces to an old bracelet. The links were caked with dirt and looked like they had been in the ground for quite a while.

After getting home, they realized that she had managed to dig up all the pieces to the bracelet. "With a little research, we discovered that the bracelet was a vintage onyx and Mexican silver piece made by a fairly renowned artist named J. Gomes," Scott said. "So I disassembled each link, polished them up and reassembled the bracelet into a beautiful restored piece. It is our most exciting find to date!"

Finder: Thurlowe R., Ottumwa, IA
Using: ACE 250
Find: This silver charm included a personalized name and date on the back side. Thurlowe was able to track down the young lady, who told him that her mother had a special bracelet with an engraved charm representing each of her children. "As we stood there crying, she called her mom," wrote Thurlowe. "Within a few seconds, the mom was crying too. After 20 years, Her mom still had the bracelet and never replaced the charm."

Finder: Scott H., Asher, OK
Using: AT Pro
Find: Scott made this find while detecting around an old house built in 1905. He noticed a crawl space under the front porch and decided to go under the porch. He was rewarded with this old tea tin full of brass and steel tax tokens from Oklahoma, Missouri, and Texas.

Finder: Scott B., Grantsville, MD

Find: Alan of Hawaii recently helped a man find his wedding ring on the beach using his Sea Hunter Mark II.

Finder: Beau Ouimette, Maryland
Using: AT Gold
Find: YouTube fans know Beau as "Aquachigger," the channel name he uses for the numerous water-hunting videos he films and produces. Relic hunters know him as the man who has more luck, or skill, than any one person should be entitled to.

Seen at left and on the bottom of the next page are just some of his Civil War-era finds made in freshwater streams during the summer of 2014 with his AT Gold. At left, Beau poses with 16 artillery shells recovered from one river location. The lower left photo is of another fantastic river hunt where he found four U.S. box plates, two complete Burnside cartridges, a U.S. bit boss, a pocket knife, a musket butt plate, a colonial shoe buckle, and many Civil War minié balls.

On the facing page, Beau poses with a Civil War Springfield rifle he has just recovered during another river hunt. The underwater images are still captures he sent in from his video of the hunt.

AT Pro Ring Recovery Makes the Local News in Michigan

Finder: David B., Grand Rapids, MI
Using: AT Pro
Find: The following story is shared directly as submitted by David.

“This hunt took place on August 22, 2013 and made me proud to be an owner of an AT Pro. The action took place in Portland, Michigan.

“Dick L. retired from Oldsmobile after working there for 39 years. He was very proud of the ring Oldsmobile gave him to commemorate his service, and wore it every day for many years. One day in the summer of 2012 Dick spent the day doing yard work at his church and his home nearby. At the end of the day Dick was devastated to realize his ring was missing. There was a lot of searching, but no results.

“Dick’s granddaughter, Lindsey, wanted to make it right for him, so she started searching for another retirement ring just like the lost one. When she found one, she surprised the 83-year-old with it at a family gathering. As he described it, Lindsey’s thoughtfulness and the sight of a twin to his ring left him speechless for the first time in his life.

“A TV reporter from her town heard the story about the ring and created one of those ‘feel-good’ stories we don’t see often enough on TV.

“This is where we came in. We saw the story on Fox-17, and decided we needed to try to find that original ring, Dick’s ring, for him. We started by calling Fox-17 to find out how to contact

Dick. The news producer we talked to was so excited about the possibility of finding it that she immediately called Dick. He agreed to meet with us.

“On August 22, 2013, my detecting friend, Gregg, and I drove the 35 miles to Portland to meet with Dick. He took us over to the church where he had been working that day a year ago. He explained how he took a dirt pile and spread it out, filling in holes. Then he sifted some of the leftover dirt to take home to do the same to his lawn.

“Gregg and I spent more than 3 fruitless hours digging, raking and detecting at the church before deciding to take a look at Dick’s front yard. In that very green and well manicured area not larger than 25 by 50 feet, we started a grid search. In less than 5 minutes I found the ring, undamaged, sitting in a small divot covered by some dead grass.

That it escaped the eyes of its owner, not to mention a year’s worth of mowing, was amazing to all of us.

“Granddaughter Lindsey accompanied us on both site searches and became a little teary eyed after the find, knowing her grandfather was reunited with his original ring. Dick himself was again speechless for a moment. Lindsey called the TV station and they immediately sent out a reporter and cameraman for the follow-up story. It became a nice lawn party with Lindsey, Dick’s wife, their daughter and several neighbors who wondered about all the commotion and TV reporters at Dick’s house.

“I used my AT Pro with a 5 x 8 coil and a Garrett pinpointer to zero in on the target—and to make a lot of people happy that day.”

Coin Finds

Finder: Michael T., Napanee, Ontario
Using: GTI 1500
Find: Initially thinking that he was going to dig trash, Michael was surprised to unearth this 1798 silver 8-real coin.

Finder: John F., Nashville, TN
Find: 1858 Flying Eagle penny

Finder: Michael S., Cartwright, OK
Using: AT Pro
Find: Michael was hunting some old home lots in Denison, Texas, but was not having luck. An area resident who had been watching him stopped to chat with him about his luck. "He seemed very interested in detecting with all the questions, so I took time to explain the AT Pro to him, even letting him to take it for a test drive," said Michael. "Then he asked if I wanted to hunt his yard. The house was built in 1906. We walked over and looked it over and I let him use my old detector. We worked it for over three hours. I think I made a new friend and he is looking to buy an AT Pro, but here are my finds from this hunt."

Finder: Keith B., Apex, NC
Using: GTI 2500
Find: This 1911 Barber dime was Keith's first silver coin after 13 years of detecting. Congrats!
